Electronic Home Detention Basic Information Sheet

In order to be accepted into the Electronic Home Detention Program, you must contact the Alternative Sentencing Department, 2307 Midpoint Drive, Fort Collins, Colorado 80525, at telephone (970) 980-2680. This number is a voice mail phone. Please speak clearly and leave your name, case number, number of days sentenced, and phone number. This MUST be done immediately upon sentencing. You will be allowed to enter this program under the following conditions:

1. You must be able to pay $14 per day for a regular unit for each day you are wearing the bracelet.
2. You will be subject to drug and alcohol testing as deemed necessary by the Program Coordinator. Each drug test will carry a fee of $20.
3. You must reside in Larimer County and have a telephone with a private line and a phone cord that plugs into the wall. You cannot have any special options on your telephone line including call waiting, call forwarding, answering service, "no soliciting block" or answering machines. Any of these special services must be disconnected prior to your hook-up date. If you are unable to obtain a private phone line and phone, you may request a Cell Unit as long as you have good cell reception at your home address. You will be required to provide some type of phone contact, i.e.; cell phone.
4. While on Home Detention, you cannot use your land line for more than 30 minutes at a time.
5. You must be willing to follow all the rules and regulations of the program.
6. You will be randomly tested by Portable Breath Test (PBT) at your home and/or work for alcohol usage. Positive test results will result in termination of the Home Detention privilege.
7. You must provide EHD staff with a weekly schedule and may not leave your home without the prior knowledge and consent of program staff.
8. Your criminal history and current charge will be reviewed to determine your eligibility for the Home Detention Program.
9. You must bring photo identification (driver license or identification card) and court documents related to your current case.
